AND MANY OTHERS.

Just recently Alex Haley became famous for his book "ROOTS". We have been checking our own roots for quite a few years now, not to become famous, but merely trying to find out who we are, where we came from, a bit about what our ancestors were like, what they did, why they did it and anything else that we could find about them.

In our search we were really not hunting for fabled or great ancestors so that we might boast to others about finding of a king, a prince or even a great potenate in our pedigree. We do not believe that finding a few people of royal blood or any honored and distinguished persons in our past will make us any the better today. We did find a few rascals and scalawags but they were very much in the minority. What we mainly found were lots of hardy pioneers - teachers, educators, ministers, farmers, carpenters and others who worked with their hands and their minds. They were most all honest, conscientious, god fearing, law-abiding people who tilled the soil, raised large families and were pillars in their communities. Our root stock were the type of pioneers that when thrown into the great melting pot, turned out the great Americans that we have today. And we are extreemly proud of them all.

It has been said "Only lunatics can be completely original". Probably, to many people, only a lunatic would waste all of this time on such foolishness as trying to climb such a ridiculous thing as a family tree - but the good lord only knows that this is not an original work. We have been helped by many, many others; through visits, correspondence, old records books that were compiled by persons now long since dead and many other sources.

From all traces that can be found at present, we are primarily of Germanic stock. The Linders, the Puterbaughs, the Cooks, the Millers, the Florys; just to name a few, came from Bavaria, The Palatine, and other parts of Germany. Are we typical Germans? What is a typical German? Is it a haughty, straight backed, goose stepping Von Prussian with a monocle screwed in his eye, or is it an Austrian peasant drinking beer in a Viennese Rasthskeller? A Bavarian cattle drover yeodeling his charges across the Alps, or a wood-carver in the Black Forest of Wurtemburg whittling out cuckoo clocks? It is almost impossible to say what a typical German really is. Germany has been over run, from ancient times up to the present, by all of the European and most of the Asiatic countries. All of the various tribes, clans and assorted peoples left their imprint on the Germans; not only "culturally" but, by intermarriage (or otherwise) on the very characteristics of the people themselves; such as height, build, color of eyes, color of hair, etc. Not only the soldiers, the conquerers and the over runners (even the Americans - twice in less than one generation) but others who fled their native lands for religious believes, political reasons or for many other causes. Some of these neer-do-wells with their itchy feet and eyes full of wonderlust just had to see what was on the other side of the horizon. Most of mainland Europe, at final analysis, is almost as much of a hodge-podge of race, creed and culture as we here in America. To be sure some of the wealthier land owning, ruling class have stayed in one place for hundred of years, but even here only the lord and master of the manor stayed put. His poor relatives and oft times even the younger sons of the family strayed and much to the horror of papa and mama married a girl from across the railroad tracks.

These ancestors of ours boarded ships at Rotterdam, which was the usual port of debarkation for most all of Germany, and after a very rigorous passage of some twenty weeks were landed in Philadelphia. These vessels were very small and crowded with poor facilities and at the close of the voyage the food and water was apt to be both scarce and spoiled. Many became sick and quite a few died enroute. Upon entering the port of Philadelphia all male persons above the age of sixteen did repeat and subscribe their name, or make their mark to the Oath of Declaration to the King of England. This was called the Declaration of Fidelity and Aburation.

In my quest for information I have visited many cemeteries, courthouses, libraries, museums and a lot of very interesting people. Some of these cemeteries were neat and well cared for, others have been abandoned for lo, these many years; they were weedgrown, thorns and brambles head high, more ground hog holes than graves, the head stones were fallen over and broken, many were illegible. I have ruined shoes walking across muddy fields to get to abandoned cemeteries and then ruined trousers crawling over barb-wire fences after I got there.

The birth records, death records, marriage records and other county records that are kept in the courthouses - if they are very old, a hundred years or older - are sometimes very hard to read. They have been handled for years, the pages badly worn, some missing entirely, the ink has faded until sometimes it is just barely visible, some of the clerks who wrote them couldn't spell and most of them wrote a very poor fist. I have run into some records that were written in German, some clerks used abbreviations, others used code and many kept very poor records.

I have also written letters by the hundreds. Most replied and gave me all the information that they had, which was at times meager - to say the least - or at other times it wouldn't fit in any way it was twisted. The times that we hit pay dirt made all this worth while. The time spent, the miles driven, the stamps bought, the micro-film read, the muddy shoes and the torn trousers in old cemeteries, the bramble scratches and poisen ivy, the disappointments, the false leads and other minor setbacks, were rather trivial compared to the nice people met, the friends made, and the thrill of finding our ancestors and where they came from, why they came, what they done for a living and all the other things that we found out about them.

This is by no means a complete family history. It is only a small portion that I have been able to string together in the several years that I have been working on it. It would probably take more than one life time to complete a family history as far back as one can find records - and even then you would run into many road blocks and brick walls that would be insurmountable. Even with the deepest digging, all of the oldest closet doors unlocked, all of the skeletons unearthed, the oldest records taken out; dusted off and deciphered - still there would be missing bits and pieces that could never be found. But we have really enjoyed putting this thing together. To use a rather tired and trite phrase (simply because it is the best one that I can think of off-hand) it was truly a labor of love.

There were more children in this family - according to census records - but these are the only ones that we have definitely placed. We are almost sure that the other Linders that were found in Auglaize County, Ohio belongs to this family, but as yet do not have the proof.
We are almost positive that George Linder who lived near Fryburg, Ohio was a son of Michael Linder Sr. In the book "100 Years" by Father Tebbe of Fryburg, it says: "Sam Craft had come to Freyburg in 1828 (the first settler) and George Wise and G. Seitar joined him in 1833. The following year came Simon Dresher and J.B. Kath. Bush and Nippgen came in 1835 and then we find M. Linder and G. Linder - etc." I believe that this is Michael and George Linder and the Bush mentioned would have been Francis Bush who had married Barbara Linder. We think that the Linders came to Fryburg about 1839 from southern Ohio, probably Brown County, Ohio.

In the records for Allen County, Ohio (this part of Allen Co. became Auglaize Co. in 1848) gives these marriage records:

Joseph Linder to Leah Heroff - July 5, 1842
Anthony Linder to Phebe Beers - Jan. 13, 1848
Mary Linder to Francis Swartzer - Jan. 13, 1848

We believe that these Linders are brothers and sisters. So this would give us THIS:

George Linder - b. 1805 in Germany - m. Mrs. Margaret (Holtz) Wehrle
Barbara Linder - b. 1812 in Germany - m. Francis Bush
Joseph Linder - ca 1820 in Pa. - m. Leah Hareoff
Anothony Linder - b. ca 1822 in Pa. - m. Phebe Beers
Mary Linder - b. - m. Francis Swartzer
Michael Linder - b. 1831 in Pa. - m. Sarah Oswalt

This is the Michael Linder family as I have put it together from various records - census records - marriage records - interviews - etc.

Now by taking census records of Auglaize County, Ohio and by personal interviews of Linders who still live in Auglaize County, Ohio, I have constructed the family of George Linder thusly:

George Linder — m. — Margaret Holtz
b. ca 1805 — ca 1840 — b. 17 Apr. 1813
d. 22 July 1863 — d. 17 Dec. 1893

George Linder was born in Germany (probably Baden, Germany). Margaret Holtz was also born in Germany. She was 1st married to Bankration Wehrle and they were the parents of one son - Jacob Wehrle, b. 2 Nov. 1838 in Hamilton County, Ohio. George and Margaret (Holtz) Linder are buried in the Catholic Cemetery at Fryburg, Ohio. I am listing the children as they are listed in census records and as they are named in their father's will. I found this will - dated 19 June 1863 - in Auglaize Co., Ohio court records.

1. Susanna Linder — b. ca 1841
2. Mary Linder — b. ca 1842 — m. George Wagner
3. George Linder, Jr. — b. ca 1844
4. William Linder — b. ca 1845 — m. Margurite Schneider
5. Louisa Linder — b. ca 1846
6. Joseph Linder — b. ca 1849 — m. Catherine Knocht
7. Michael Linder — b. 18 Feb. 1851 - d. 3 Apr. 1888
8. Catherina Linder — b. ca 1853

I have taken the ages of these children from the 1850 & 1860 census records of Auglaize County, Ohio. Michael Linder is buried with his parents in Catholic Cemetery.

The family of Barbara Linder and Francis - again we take census records od Auglaize County, Ohio for the years of 1850-1860-1870 - all ages approximate.

Barbara Maryetta Linder — m. — Francis H. Bush
b. 6 Dec. 1811 — ca 1833 — b. ca 1812
d. 20 Dec. 1875 — d.

They were both born in Baden, Germany. In both the 1860 and the 1870 census Michael Linder was listed as living with the Bush family. In all of the census records that I have found for Michael Linder he was listed as having been born in Baden, Germany and his occupation as cooper.

1. George Bush — b. ca 1834
2. Joseph Bush — b. ca 1836
3. Roseann Bush — b. ca 1838
4. Mary Bush — b. ca 1840
5. Elizabeth Bush — b. ca 1843
6. Michael Bush — b. ca 1846
7. Francis Bush, Jr. — b. ca 1849
8. Benjamin Bush — b. ca 1852
9. Susana Bush — b. ca 1855

We have no information on any of these Bush children - except that Benjamin Bush was in the asylum in 1900.

Next comes the family of Joseph Linder & Leah Hareoff - we have given this.

We have no information of any kind for Anthony Linder, except this 1850 census record of Clay Township, Auglaize County, Ohio:

LINDER, Anthony	28	farmer	born Pa.
LINDER, Phebe	21	housewife	born Ohio
LINDER, Hannah	1		" "
LINDER, Lewis	4/12		" "

This family was not in the 1860 or later census records of Auglaize County, Ohio

I also have nothing on the family of Mary Linder and Francic Swartzer - haven't hunted.

We have a much clearer picture of the family of Michael Linder, Jr. - we have his army service record - census records - cemetery records, and his obit.

Michael Linder	m.	Sarah Oswalt
b. 1 Aug. 1831	27 Jan. 1857	b. 27 Mar. 1832
d. 27 Jan. 1903		d. 2 Nov. 1894

Michael Linder was born in Pittsburg, Pa. He enlisted in the army (Civil War) 23 Sept. 1864 and was discharged at Washington D.C. 6 June 1865. His personal discription on his service record state: 5feet 5 inches tall - dark complection - black hair - and blue eyes. He accompanied Gen. Sherman on his march to the sea in Nov. 1864. In an application for a pension (which he never received) it states: "That while a member of the origanization aforesaid, in the srevice and in the line of his duty, with Gen. Sherman on his march to the sea in Nov. 1864 - he contracted rheumatism, chronic diarrhea, nervous prostration and deafness of left ear, caused by severe exposure."

According to his obit there were 5 children - two boys and three girls - but only one daughter lived to maturity. In an old cemetery on the north side of Route 33 is an old Cemetery - there used to be a Lutheran Church here, and I imagine that Joseph Linder is buried in this cemetery but no stone remains for him - I did find this stone - rather large and badly worn, with these inscriptions:

side 1	Sarah Linder	- 27 Mar. 1832 - 2 Nov. 1894
side 2	Michael Linder	- 1 Aug. 1831 (no death date)
side 3	David Linder	- 24 Mar. 1858
	Elizabeth Linder	- 2 May 1866 - 13 Oct. 1868
	Charley Linder	- 5 May 1870 - 13 May 1870
side 4	blank

There was a Flag and a Civil War Marker on this plot.

We will construct his family thusly:

1. David Linder	b.	ca 1858
2. Catherine Linder	b. 21 Oct. 1860		- m. T.R. Fay
3. Louisa Linder	b.	ca 1863
4. Elizabeth Linder	b. 2 May 1866	- 13 Oct. 1868
5. Charles Linder	b. 5 May 1870	- 13 May 1870

I also found in the court records for Auglaize County, Ohio where Michael Linder was commited to the insane asylum 5 Jan. 1900. This court order was signed by CHARLES LINDER, and it stated: " His mother had queer tendencies. Benj. Bush is in the asylum and he a cousin and some other relatives further back were mentally weak. Many of his relatives were troubled with nervous diseases."

The only Charles Linder that I could find that fit into the picture - age wise and other wise was: CHARLES LINDER that I found in 1850 Census of Warren County, Ohio. It gives his age as 36 and as having been born in Pa. If this Charles Linder is another son of Michael Linder, Sr. (and he well could be) this could explain why two of Joseph Linder's children went to Warren County, Ohio - Wm. Benjamin and Martha Linder who married Joseph Allen. I have found a man in Calif. whom I helped to establish his relationship to this Charles Linder, he in turn was to supply me with all information that he had for this Linder family, but unfortunatelly after he received what he wanted - no more response - several letters from me still didn't get answered.

This is the way that I have constructed the family of Michael Linder, remember that this is merely conjectural guessing and that I have no definite proof for much of the family as I have arranged it - but I am very much inclined to believe that circumstantial evidence will bear me out. It all dove-tails so very neatly that I believe that the family could only go this way.

CHRISTINA HAREOFF	ca 1832	Ohio
ELIZABETH HAREOFF	ca 1835	Ohio
HENRY HAREOFF	ca 1838	Ohio

Once again we are guessing on the parents of Leah Hareoff. In the 1850 census of Auglaize Co., Ohio John Hareoff was numbered as 496 - on same census record no. 500 was Joseph Linder.

We are not sure (have no definite proof) that John & Barbara Hareoff were the parents of Leah Hareoff - we do know that Leah did have a sister, Sarah Hareoff, who married a Wagner and they lived in Lightsville, Ohio. Leah was living with this family at the time of her death.

The other children that I have put in this family, and their approximate ages, I have taken from the 1850 census of Auglaize County, Ohio. I also found John and Barbara Hareoff in the 1860 census of the same county.

The Hareoff farm was in Pusheta Township - not Clay Twp. - Auglaize County, Ohio.

* Rebecca Kirby was 1st married 1 Jan. 1812 to William Evans - he died in 1825. They were parents of one son - Mark Evans - I have no info on him.

I have very little information on any of these children, except that I found the graves of Samuel Beal and his wife Martha Rhodes in the Red Lion Cemetery and the graves of Lewis H. Beal and his wife Mary Jane in the Springboro Cemetery.

Noah Beal was supposed to have been killed by a run-a-way colt that he was riding to the grist-mill. Evidently it threw him breaking his neck.

BEAL - BEALE - BEALL - BELL

The origin of the Bell clan of Scotland does not seem to have been definitely recorded. Numerous data have bee collected and digested on the subject, which permit satisfactory deductions. Previous to the Roman Conquest Britain was inhabited by about fourty tribes of people called Cymri, or ancient Britons. Their origin is undetermined. Native lrgends indicate that they migrated from the East, and took possession of Britian in ancient times long before the Christain Era. The names of their gods are similar to those of ancient Phoenicia and Babylon.

The religion of the Cymri was Druidistical. The objects of their reverence were numerous, vis: oak trees, mistletoe, the hills, the rivers, the rocks, the sun or the fire giver; and an imaginary god called Baal, Bel, Biel or Bell. Their priests were called Druids. Their places of worship did not consist of houses, but certain places in the hills formed by a circle of great stones. Many of the stone circles are in existence today. The Romans found these Druids priest had great influnce over the natives; so they tried to destroy the priests. They found that their directors and their chief meeting place were on the Isle of Mono or Anglesia, on the coast of Wales. They immediately killed the priests and cut down their sacred trees. There were many other minor places of worship left after the cheif one on Mono Isle had been destroyed, but their general authority had been destroyed and finally disappeared when Christianity appeared. The Druids practiced human sacrifice.

Ceasar first invaded Britain in 55 B.C. and in 58 A.D. sent a Governor-General to control the providence. The Romans evacuted Britain in 410 A.D.

Saint Kentigen and Saint Mungo the Beloved, lit the torches of early Christianity in Britain, and began the destruction of paganism. Saint Ninian built his first church near Whithorn in 391 A.D. and called it Candida Casa. Saint Patrick commenced preaching in Ireland in 425 A.D.

After the intruduction of Christianity in Britain the priest of Baal, Bel, Biel or Bell, finding their occupation gone, assembled, and for mutual protection, formed a clan called Baal, Bel, Biel or Bell. They located in Scotland on the west coast.

The first mention of the Bell clan in Scotland's political history was in 1587, when the Bell's were put on the unruly lists of the clans in the west marshes. By this time they were scattered over England and Scotland and many had changed the spelling of the name from Bell to Beal, Beall or Beale.

Elizabeth and Jonathan Kirby were first cousins
Caleb Merritt married 1st Sarah Kirby - after her death he married her sister, Jane.

Joseph and brother Richard Kirby, left Burlington County, New Jersey - we think - about 1787. They were evidently on their way west at that time but for some reason Joseph and his family stopped in Pa. for about 10 years. Next we find Joseph and Richard in Cincinnati, Ohio in May 1796 when they received word of the death of their father in New Jersey. Joseph went back to New Jersey to help settle the estate, while Richard went on to Warren County, Ohio to locate land. Richard must have bought land almost immediately but Joseph bought land for the first time in Warren County in 1813.

Puderbaugh Family of Elkhart County, Indiana.
An old title abstract in the writer's possession provides some facts about the Jacob Puderbaugh family through the years 1834-1857, which may be of interest to descendants. The original patent # 701 for certain Elkhart, Ind. land was issued to Howel Huntsman Aug. 2, 1831. Then follows a recital of a warranty deed of June 1834 conveying this real estate to Jacob Puderbaugh and Rebecca his wife of Elkhart Co., State of Indiana. In 1835 a petition was filed for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Jacob Puterbaugh. June 2, 1835, a deed record recites #parties of the first part and David Puterbaugh, Jacob Puterbaugh, Andrew Puterbaugh and Catherine Puterbaugh, heirs at law of Jacob Puterbaugh, des's., late of Elkhart Co., Ind. " In 1855 the abstract further states that Jacob and Andrew Puterbaugh are of Darke County, Ohio - David of Berrien County, Michigan, and Ezekiel Roe and Catherine his wife of Wells Co., Ind. July 4, 1857, it speakes of David Puterbaugh of St. Joseph Co., Ind. - Jacob Puterbaugh of Franklin Co., Kansas Territory, and Ezekiel Roe and his wife Catherine of Wells Co., Ind.

Moses and Mary Crumrine were divorced in 1874 or 1875. He then married 6 May 1875 Miranda Hartzell. 8 children by his 1st marriage - 2 children by 2nd marriage.

Quote from Gail Crumrine's Crumrine Family History: " Both marriages recorded in Darke Co Moses is buried in Hillgrove Cemetery and Mary is buried in Snell Cemetery near Hillgrove. Moses and Mary were charter members of the Greenville Creek (Union City) Church of the Brethren. Because of his divorce from Mary he was relieved of membership. He was a farmer in Washington Twp., Darke Co., O., having cleared much of the land himself. Beers "History of Darke Co., O. page 440 refers to Moses settling in Washington Twp.. Reliable reports say that when Moses died, money was carried out of his house by the grain sacks (plural) full. Census reports he had a large estate."

We have very little information on this family. What we do have comes from the "Nafzger Heritage News" and from Mrs. Hazel Quist.

It is not certain if the children are listed in order of birth.

Rudolph Noffsinger entered the New World in 1749 with Peter and Matthew (Mathias) Noffsinger aboard the ship "Phoenix". We pay tribute to Clea Brown Richer, author of "History of the Nafzger Family in America" for her efforts in placing many descendants of Rudolph into family lines -- etc." This was copied from the Nafzger Heritage News.

1. PETER NOFFSINGER. The name of his 1st wife is not known but children Elizabeth and Daniel were born of this first marriage. After the death of his first wife, he was married in 1794 to Catherine Wise in Washington Co., Pa. Judith and Mary were born of the second marriage. Catherine Wise, was the widow of Frederick Wise, founder of Frederick, Pa. Peter completed the work begun in the town of Frederick and was interested in its development.

2. SAMUEL NOFFSINGER. The first name of Samuel's wife was Susan who he married in Pa. The names of children of this marriage are not known. He was married a second time in 1821 to Hannah Ritter at Dayton, Ohio. Mary and Barbara were born of this marriage. Samuel moved to Washington Co., Pa. in about 1780 from Westmoreland Co. He bought land on "Casteel Run" in 1790 but sold it in 1807 and moved to Montgomery Co., Ohio following John and his sons who had gone there in 1801.

3. ANDREW NOFFSINGER. The first name of his wife was Catherine and they were married in Pa. Children are Joseph, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Catherine. The above couple emigrated to Montgomery Co., Ohioin about 1802. In 1809, they sold their land in Montgomery Co. and moved to Miami Co., Ohio, buying land of Peter Studebaker, also land and water right for the erection of a mill from Jacob Boblet. The latter purchase fell in Darke County when that county was separated from Miami. (my note: Darke County, Ohio was formed in 1809 from Miami -- Miami County was formed in 1807 from Montgomery County) This old mill was situated near Weaver's Station, in the vicinity of old Fort Jefferson, southwest of Greenville, Ohio.
(copied from Darke County history; " Somewhat later, Andrew Noftsinger put up a grist-mill on Mud Creek, below the outlet of the lake'this about 1809' The bolting here was done by hand, and could not supply the demands of the people, etc. The next improvement was a horse-mill, put up by John Puderbaugh, on the east side of West Branch Prairie. This mill afforded fair facilities for grinding in winter while other mills were frozen up. Two neighbors, going together, set out before day with harnessed horses and a sack of corn on each horse. If, on reaching the mill, it was found to be thronged, a neighborly feeling was shown. Each got part of his grist ground, but there was no meal left to require a return, for the old miller had thriftily connected with the mill a small copper still, which turned out a very desirable quality of whisky which was always readily exchangeable for corn." (This was our John Puderbaugh - clever eh?)

4. JOHN NOFFSINGER . (See his family on page no. 26) John Noffsinger was born about 1751 in Pa.. He resided in Washington Co., Pa. from 1777 to 1801. His children were born in Pa. and are Daniel, Judah, Lydia, John Jr., Charles, Andrew, Samuel, Susanna, Sarah, and Eli. The military records of Pa. give the name of John Noffsinger, above, as a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was a member of the Washington Co. "Militia" from 1777 to 1784. He was granted a survey of land, evidently for military services, along Plum Run, near Ten Mile Creek in East Bethlehem Twp., Washington Co., and after adding to it by purchase, made it their home. This grant of land was called "Jan". As his children grew to maturity, they established homes near their father, and in some cases, they purchased tracts of land from their father, according to land records on file in Washington Co., Pa. About 1800 John and his wife, with their married children, left Pa. and moved to Ohio. They settled near Dayton, Ohio - Montgomery County. He lived here, surrounded by his descendants, until his death in about 1825.

Have no information on the other four children.

* This cemetery is now known as Clark's Station Cemetery.

Jacob Puterbaugh was born in Maryland and he evidently went directly to Bedford Co., Pa. after his marriage, without stopping in Franklin Co., Pa. with his father and two of his brothers. About 1816 Jacob's family began migrating to Ohio - Darke and Montgomery Counties. He probably was on a visit to these children in Darke County, Ohio when he sickened and died in 1822. Son John established a cemetery, from a corner of his farm, and Jacob was the first to be buried in it. Evidently Susannah, Jacob's wife, went on back home to Bedford Co., Pa. where she lived for several more years, having died in 1830. She is buried in Bedford Co., Pa.

1. John Puterbaugh - see page no. 28 for his family.

2. Abraham Puterbaugh. He was born 19 Sept. 1784 in Bedford Co., Pa. and died in Berrien Co., Mich. He was married to Magdalena (last name unknown) and they were parents of at least 7 children - but we only have names and records on 3 of them. He moved from Bedford Co., Pa. to Darke County, Ohio - problably accompying his brothers and sisters about 1816. This was copied from the Berrien County, Michigan History; " Abram Puterbaugh was one of the first settlers in Berrien Co. In 1836 he moved his family consisting of his wife and seven children from Ohio to Niles, Michigan. Early in 1841, Mr. Puterbaugh went to Berrien Springs for a mill iron and upon his return attemped to cross the frozen river but broke through the ice and was drowned. David, one of Abram's sons, moved to Pipestone Twp. about 1838; another son also moved to Pipestone in 1855. Two years after his marriage, son Abram was killed while clearing land by the fall of a tree. David Puterbaugh married Loren Marsh's widow."
We do have some records of three children - David, Jacob ans Abram.

3. Catherine Puterbaugh - died at birth - was twin to Elizabeth.

4. Elizabeth Puterbaugh. Born Bedford County, Pa. 26 Jan. 1786 and died in Blair Co., Pa. 23 Oct. 1866. She married Jonathan Hoover, s/o John Hoover. He was born in York Co., Pa. 3 June 1783 and died in Blair County, Pa. 6 Jan. 1856. She was the only one of Jacob's children who stayed in Pa. They were the parents of 12 children.

5. Jacob Puderbaugh, Jr. He was born 5 Feb. 1788 in Bedford Co., Pa. and died 11 April 1865 in Jefferson County, Kansas. He was married 1st in 1809 to Magdalena Schlechty, d/o Christian Schlechty and Barbara Barry. She was born 3 July 1787 in Berks Co., Pa. and died 16 Jan. 1831 in Darke County, Ohio, she is buried in Wayne Lakes Cemetery, Darke Co., Ohio. They were parents of at least 14 children, 13 of which grew to maturity. After the death of his 1st wife, Jacob married 2nd Mrs. Elizabeth (Teeter) Wise. She was born 4 Feb. 1805 and died 4 June 1853 in Darke Co., Ohio. She is buried in Mills Cemetery, Butler Twp., Darke Co., Ohio. They were parents of 7 more children. Either late in 1853 or early in 1854, Jacob and the children who were still at home at this time, moved from Darke Co., Ohio to Wabash Co., Ind. He lived in Wabash County, Ind. until 1864 when he moved, with several of his married children, to Kansas Territory. They settled in what later became Jefferson County, near the small town of Ozawkie, Kansas.

6. Catherine Puterbaugh. She was born 31 Jan. 1790 in Bedford Co., Pa. and died in Montgomery County, Ohio 23 June 1855. She married Moses Hoover (who was a brother of Jonathan, who had married her sister Elizabeth) He was a s/o John Martin Hoover., and was born 7 Jan. 1791 and died in Montgomery County, Ohio 7 Aug. 1848. They were parents of 10 children. The names of these children come from the will of Moses Hoover, filed in the Montgomery County Courthouse, Dayton, Ohio on 6 Dec.1848.

7. George Puterbaugh. He was born 23 Jan. 1792 in Bedford Co., Pa. and died in Darke County, Ohio 28 Oct. 1863. He was married first to Barbara Schlechty (she a sister to Magdalena who had married Jacob Jr.) d/o Christian Schlechty and Barbara Barry. She was born 22 Nov. 1792 in Berks Co., Pa. and died 18 Feb. 1824 in Darke Co., O. They were parents of 8 children. George Puterbaugh married for 2nd wife Mrs. Barbara (Livengood) Griffith. She was born 10 Nov. 1792 in Berks Co., Pa. and died 21 Aug. 1849 in Darke County, Ohio. They were parents of 7 children

7. Susannah Puterbaugh. She was born in Bedford Co., Pa. 1 July 1794 and died in Darke Co., Ohio 26 Apr. 1880, married John Kunkle, he s/o John Konkel. John Jr. was probably married in Bedford County, Pa. and he died in Darke County, Ohio 31 Dec. 1852. They are both buried in the Old Puterbaugh Cemetery, Liberty Twp., Darke County, Ohio. They probably came to Darke County about 1816 with the rest of the children of Jacob Puterbaugh. John Kunkle was a brother of Michael Kunkle who married Mary Puterbaugh. John and Susannah Kunkle had five children.

9. Maria Puterbaugh. We have her birth as 1 July 1796 in Bedford County, Pa. Evidently she must have died at a rather early age, as we have no further record on her.

10. Mary Puterbaugh. She was born 25 Apr. 1798 in Bedford County, Pa. and died 29 July 1875 in Darke County, Ohio. She married in 1818 Michael Kunkle another son of John Konkel. This John Konkel (or Kunkle) was born about 1765 and although we do not know his wife's name, we do know that he was the father of 6 children. John Jr was the oldest and Michael was the second child. Michael Kunkle was born 15 Dec. 1785 and died in Darke County, Ohio 21 May 1860. He and his wife are buried in the Old Puterbaugh Cemetery in Liberty Twp. (which at one time was German Twp. - it's name was changed in World War I) Darke County, Ohio. They also probably came to Darke County, Ohio around 1816 when the rest of the family came. They were the parents of 8 children.

11. David Puterbaugh. He was the youngest child of Jacob and Susannah Puterbaugh. He was born 19 Dec. 1800 in Bedford County, Pa. and died 1 Sept. 1886 (this according to George Liebegott, a genealogist from the Morrison's Cove area of Pa. located in Bedford County) David married Elizabeth Metzger and they were parents of eight children. Not too many records for this family - we do have the names and birth dates of his children, who they married and that is about all. Of the eight children of this family there were only two boys that grew to maturity and then only one of these two married. It is believed that David Puterbaugh also stayed in Pennsylvania when the rest of the family came to Ohio.

"John Keagy, the eldest son of Jacob was born ca 1746, or thereabout. He was married to Sarah Sneider, who was born in Canada. To them were born 6 children, one son, Jacob, and five daughters; Mariah, Sarah, Anna, Elizabeth, b. 2 Aug. 1781 in York Co., Pa. and Eve. In the spring of 1783 John Keagy moved from York Co., Pa. to Bedford Co., Pa. near where Myersdale City, now in Somerset Co. John Keagy was a Dunkard preacher and held the first Liebensmohl communion meeting west of the Alleghany mountains. This was in the year 1783. At this time there was only 8 or 10 families living in that region. John Keagy sought out these families and appointed a day and a meeting place and a church was organized; the society prospered and multiplied, and the settlement took the name of "Bruderthal." That is "Brothers Valley." Years afterwards, when this section was laid out in townships, one of them was named "Brothers Valley" township. The society thus began in 1783, has increased and divided, subdivided, and today numbers nearly 30 distinct organizations of Brethren or Dunkard.

In 1810 John Keagy moved from Somerset Co., Pa. to Montgomery Co., Ohio with his son-in-law, John Olinger, where soon afterward he died. His wife died about 1835 in Montgomery County, Ohio."

George Butterbaugh was born in Germany - we think in a small town of Puderbach, which would now be in West Germany. He came to America, with his older brother, John Peter Butterbaugh, 15 Sept. 1752. He first settled in Frederick Co., Maryland, where all of his children were born and then in 1786 moved to Franklin County, Pa. This was a move of about 5 miles. Two of his sons, John and Henry made the move with him. Two more sons, Jacob and George, moved to the Morrison's Cove area of Bedford Co., Pa. Catherine, the youngest child, lived with and took care of her parents until their death, she then bought out the other heirs.

We have found no information on Christina Adams.

Thanks be to God for it, do make this my last will and Testament and desire it may be received by all as such. Etc." From this will we learn that he had 4 sons and 3 daughters, of whom Jacob Keagy was the oldest son and that he was born 13 Sept. 1719.

The old family Bible thus records his death: "Fell asleep in Jesus on 28th day of December, in the year of Lord Jesus Christ 1778, aged 69 yrs, 3 mo, and 15 da.

This Keagy material was sent to me by Mrs. Ruth Markley of Andover, Ohio.

Recompence Kirby, born in Sandwich, Mass about 1647. He moved to Dartmouth, Mass. and then to Burlington Co., N.J. in 1698. He was evidently a Quaker as was his wife, Rebecca Allen. He was also evidently several years older than his wife. Rebecca Allen's father, Francis Allen, was a brother of Matthew Allen who married Sarah Kirby, who was a sister of Recompence.
Recompence Kirby's will disposed of 500 acres of land to his children. Will made 4 Sept. 1712 amd proved 6 Aug. 1720. Executor of will was his son Richard.
The above four children were all that were mentioned in his will, there could have been more children in this family - but it is doubtful.

John Cheshire's will was dated 16 Apr. 1735 - children listed in rotation that they were named in their father's will.

Benjamin Cheshire: Will proved 19 Nov. 1740. Naned his sister Anne, wife of Richard Kirby, and their children; Mary, Richard, John, Jonathan, Joseph, Samuel and Robert. He also named his brother Samuel Cheshire and sister Sarah Lippincott.

Jonathan Cheshire: Will proved 17 Mar. 1777. He evidently never married. He left money for the Chesterfield monthly meeting. He also left legacies to the "male children of my cousins, John, Jonathan, Joseph, Samuel and Robert Kirby. These were to have double shares and the female children of all their fathers aforesaid were to have half of a share as they come of age."

(In those days the word "cousin" was often used in place of niece or nephew.)

This is the only child known of this couple, at present.

"The Name of Phares is Hebrew, and the first person to bear it was a Bible Character of some note, being a son of Judah by Tamar and a twin Zarah, or Zerah (Gen. 38:29:30) both of whom at maturity founded tribal families named for them.

As a tribe, Phares' posterity were known as Pharzites, and two more such families sprang from their sons and bore their names (Num. 26:20,21; I Chron. 2:4,5)

The descendants of Phares were numbered by the hundred, as indicated in many passages, notably Neh 11:4-6, where it is recorded that after the return from captivity there resided in Jerusalem 'four hundred three score and eight valiant men'. It is significant that men only were counted in this census. Reference is made to them as sons of Perez, which is synomymous with Phares. Other reference to the importance of this Jerusalem family is found in I Chron 9:4."

by Franklin Keagy, Chambersburg, Pa. - pub. 1899 - page 44

"John Keagy, the eldest son of Jacob was born ca 1746, or thereabout. He was married to Sarah Sneider, who was born in Canada. To them were born 6 children, one son, Jacob, and five daughters; Mariah, Sarah, Anna, Elizabeth, b. 2 Aug. 1781 in York Co., Pa. and Eve. In the spring of 1783 John Keagy moved from York Co., Pa. to Bedford Co., Pa. near where Myersdale City, now in Somerset Co. John Keagy was a Dunkard preacher and held the first Liebensmohl communion meeting west of the Alleghany mountains. This was in the year 1783. At this time there was only 8 or 10 families living in that region. John Keagy sought out these families and appointed a day and a meeting place and a church was organized; the society prospered and multiplied, and the settlement took the name of "Bruderthal." That is "Brothers Valley." Years afterwards, when this section was laid out in townships, one of them was named "Brothers Valley" township. The society thus began in 1783, has increased and divided, subdivided, and today numbers nearly 30 distinct organizations of Brethren or Dunkard.

In 1810 John Keagy moved from Somerset Co., Pa. to Montgomery Co., Ohio with his son-in-law, John Olinger, where soon afterward he died. His wife died about 1835 also in Montgomery County, Ohio

From: "Kagy Relationship 1715-1900" by Franklin Keagy of Chambersburg, Pa.

John R. Keagy will 1748 -- "I, John Kegay, in the County of Lancaster and province of Pennsylvania, Township of Conestoga being very sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory. Thanks be to God for it, do make this my last will and Testament and desire it may be received by all as such. Etc. "

From this will we learn that he had 4 sons and three daughters, of whom Jacob Keagy was the oldest son and that he was born 13 Sept. 1719.

The old family Bible thus records his death: "Fell asleep in Jesus on 28th day of December, in the year of Lord Jesus Christ 1778, aged 69 yrs, 3 mo. and 15 da.
